| Election on bond issue. | SEC. 8. That the bonds herein provided for shall be deposited in some safe-deposit company or bank to be designated by said board of commissioners, and drawn out on the order of the road commission of said county hereinafter provided for, the proceeds of which shall be applied to the purposes as herein provided for. |
| Date of election. | SEC. 9. For the purpose of ascertaining the wishes of the voters of Lincoln County upon the question of issuing said bonds and improving the roads of said county, as provided for in this act, an election shall be held at all the voting precincts in said county on first Tuesday after first Monday in March, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. At said election all voters of said county qualified to vote at said election may vote a printed or written ticket. |
| Tickets. | Those who favor the purposes of this act shall vote a ticket with the words "For Road Improvement" written or printed thereon, and those who oppose the purposes of this act shall vote a ticket with the words "Against Road Improvement" written or printed thereon; and if the majority of the voters of Lincoln County qualified to vote at said election shall vote "For Road Improvement," then the bonds provided for in this act shall be issued and sold according to the provisions herein contained. The said election shall be held in the manner provided by law for the election of members of the General Assembly, except as is otherwise and differently provided in this act. There shall be a new registration of the voters of said county for said election. The board of commissioners shall cause to be published in some newspaper published in said county a notice of said election for thirty days prior to the date of the election. The registration books for said new registration shall be opened twenty days before said election and shall close on the last Friday night, at sunset, before said election. Registrars and judges of election of each precinct shall meet at their respective precincts on the last Saturday before said election and hear any complaint for refusing of registration, and also all challenges which shall be made against any person admitted to registration; but no name shall be erased from the registration list without notice to said person and a hearing, and said hearing may be on said day or at any day after the registration books have closed and including the day of election. The registrars and judges of election shall be appointed by the board of commissioners thirty days before said election, and the persons so appointed shall be served with notice of their appointment by the Sheriff of Lincoln County. There shall be appointed one registrar and two judges of election for each precinct. At the close of the election in each precinct the vote shall be counted and returned, over the signatures of the registrar and judges of the election, or a majority of them, to the board of commissioners of the county of Lincoln.
